JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

FIRST AMENDED COMPLAINT

Plaintiffs ELIZABETH DIERKEN, JOSEPH DIAMOND, VICTORIA SOBEL, BRENNAN CAVANAUGH, MIRIAM ROCEK, ARMANDO ESPINOZA, ROSITA ADAMS, MILO GONZALEZ, LOUIS JARGOW and KYLE RUCKER, by their attorneys, STECKLOW COHEN & THOMPSON, complaining of the defendants, respectfully allege as follows:

I. PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. Plaintiffs ELIZABETH DIERKEN, JOSEPH DIAMOND, VICTORIA SOBEL, BRENNAN CAVANAUGH, MIRIAM ROCEK, ARMANDO ESPINOZA, ROSITA ADAMS, MILO GONZALEZ, LOUIS JARGOW and KYLE RUCKER (“Plaintiffs”) bring this action for compensatory damages, punitive damages and attorney's fees pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983 and 42 U.S.C. § 1988 for violations of their civil rights, as said rights are secured by said statutes and the Constitutions of the State of New York and the United States.

2. On the afternoon of Saturday, September 24th, 2011, Plaintiffs were present in the vicinity of Union Square as participants in and observers of a march in furtherance of the Occupy Wall Street (“O.W.S.”) movement. The O.W.S. movement, inter alia, seeks to call attention to and change inequalities and ill effects created through corporate capture of governmental policymaking and enforcement. Plaintiffs as well as approximately eighty other eventual mass arrestees (“mass arrestees”) had observed or joined the march in question at various points throughout lower Manhattan prior to the incident complained of herein.

3. Following Plaintiffs’ participation in and observation of the march, the Defendants subjected Plaintiffs to pre-planned, calculated, and illegal “trap-and-arrest” tactics, through which the Defendant POLICE OFFICERS effected mass arrests and detentions of Plaintiffs and mass arrestees by extending orange netting across city blocks and arresting substantially all persons within their nets. The Defendant POLICE OFFICERS effected the arrests and detentions of Plaintiffs despite the absence of individualized probable cause to arrest any one of the named Plaintiffs, and without warning Plaintiffs that their conduct would lead to arrests, and without providing a reasonable opportunity or a viable avenue for Plaintiffs to disperse. Plaintiffs were compliant at all times with the Defendant POLICE OFFICERS’ orders and commands, which substantially were given only after Plaintiffs were arrested.

4. Plaintiffs KYLE RUCKER and LOUIS JARGOW were additionally subjected to brutal and unnecessary applications of force by Defendant NEW YORK CITY POLICE DEPUTY INSPECTOR ANTHONY BOLOGNA, in that said Defendant pepper-sprayed Plaintiff KYLE RUCKER and said Defendant also seized Plaintiff LOUIS JARGOW and bodily threw Plaintiff LOUIS JARGOW into the bumper of a parked car, where one or more Defendant POLICE OFFICERS proceeded to additionally batter Plaintiff LOUIS JARGOW. Both Plaintiffs

RUCKER and JARGOW were arrested, detained, and then released without charges.

5. We respectfully submit that the Defendant POLICE OFFICERS' deployment of the aforementioned "trap-and-arrest" tactics was both the direct as well as an indirect result of policies and practices approved, condoned, and ratified by Defendant (FORMER) MAYOR MICHAEL R. BLOOMBERG, Mayor of the City of New York, Defendant (FORMER) NEW YORK CITY POLICE COMMISSIONER RAYMOND W. KELLY, Commissioner of the New York City Police Department and Defendant NEW YORK CITY POLICE CHIEF JOSEPH ESPOSITO (RETIRED), Chief of the New York City Police Department.

6. Still further, we submit that Defendant (FORMER) MAYOR MICHAEL R. BLOOMBERG, Defendant (FORMER) NEW YORK CITY POLICE COMMISSIONER RAYMOND W. KELLY, and Defendant NEW YORK CITY POLICE CHIEF JOSEPH ESPOSITO (RETIRED) have approved, condoned, and ratified these indiscriminate "trap-and-arrest" tactics both directly as well as indirectly for the purposes of chilling individuals' First Amendment protected rights and retaliating against individuals for their legal exercise of the same.

7. In sum, Plaintiffs ELIZABETH DIERKEN, JOSEPH DIAMOND, VICTORIA SOBEL, BRENNAN CAVANAUGH, MIRIAM ROCEK, ARMANDO ESPINOZA, ROSITA ADAMS, MILO GONZALEZ, LOUIS JARGOW and KYLE RUCKER bring this action in a quest for answers as to why they were retaliated against for their legal exercise of their First Amendment protected rights to free speech and association; subjected to indiscriminate and illegal "trap-and-arrest" tactics; detained for varying lengths of time, brutalized, and subjected to prosecution in the absence of any criminal conduct or wrongdoing.

II. JURISDICTION

8. This action is brought pursuant to 42 U.S.C. §§ 1983 and 1988, and the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution. Jurisdiction is conferred upon this Court by 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331, 1343(3) and (4) and the aforementioned statutory and constitutional provisions.

9. Plaintiffs further invoke this Court's supplemental jurisdiction, pursuant to 28 USC. § 1367, over any and all State law claims and causes of action which derive from the same nucleus of operative facts and are part of the same case or controversy that gives rise to the federally based claims and causes of action.

III. VENUE

10. Venue is proper for the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(a), (b), and (c) and § 1402(b) because Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK maintains its primary and relevant place(s) of business in this district.

IV. JURY DEMAND

11. Plaintiffs respectfully demand a trial by jury of all issues in this matter pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 38(b).

38. Some of the Plaintiffs were present to observe the march, and monitor interactions between police and protesters.

39. Plaintiff ROSITA ADAMS was merely present in the vicinity of Union Square on personal errands, and was not even aware of the existence of OWS prior to her arrest.

40. Plaintiffs, along with approximately eighty other soon-to-be mass arrestees, had observed or joined the march in question at various points throughout lower Manhattan prior to the incident complained of herein.

46. As some individuals, including but not limited to Plaintiffs and mass arrestees, headed south following the march, they were met by police officers including the Defendant POLICE OFFICERS and Defendant DEPUTY INSPECTOR ANTHONY BOLOGNA at East 12th Street and University Place.

47. Some or all of the above-named Defendants deployed orange netting at that time to cordon off particular individuals, including but not limited to Plaintiff KYLE RUCKER.

PLAINTIFF KYLE RUCKER'S PEPPER SPRAYING AND ARREST

48. As Plaintiff KYLE RUCKER was trapped in the orange netting at East 12th Street and University Place, he was hit by pepper spray deployed by Defendant DEPUTY INSPECTOR ANTHONY BOLOGNA.

49. As Plaintiff KYLE RUCKER was trapped in the orange netting at East 12th Street and University Place, he was hit by pepper spray deployed by one or more Defendant POLICE OFFICERS.

50. As a result of his being struck by police pepper spray, Plaintiff KYLE RUCKER experienced pain, burning and discomfort on his scalp, face, shoulders and back.

51. Plaintiff KYLE RUCKER was not given an opportunity to wash off or otherwise remove the pepper spray until after he was released from custody in the late evening of September 24, 2011.

52. As Plaintiff KYLE RUCKER was trapped in the orange netting, he flashed a peace sign, i.e., two fingers raised in a "V" with palm out, to several "white shirt" senior Defendant POLICE OFFICERS.

53. Without any warning, several Defendant POLICE OFFICERS then tackled Plaintiff KYLE RUCKER and arrested him.

54. As a result of being tackled by multiple Defendant POLICE OFFICERS, Plaintiff KYLE RUCKER experienced pain, bruising and abrasions.

65. Plaintiff LOUIS JARGOW was then bodily seized without warning or apparent justification by Defendant NEW YORK CITY POLICE DEPUTY INSPECTOR ANTHONY BOLOGNA.

66. Defendant NEW YORK CITY POLICE DEPUTY INSPECTOR ANTHONY BOLOGNA grabbed Plaintiff LOUIS JARGOW and threw Plaintiff LOUIS JARGOW into the bumper of a nearby parked car.<sup>1</sup>

73. After approximately eight (8) hours in police custody, Plaintiff LOUIS JARGOW was released without charges of any kind.

79. Plaintiff MILO GONZALEZ moved to comply, and was punched in the mouth by a Defendant POLICE OFFICER as he attempted to do so.

80. Plaintiff MILO GONZALEZ began to verbally protest this assault, and was physically seized and thrown to the ground by the Defendant "JOHN DOE" POLICE OFFICER, who then proceeded to put his knee on Plaintiff MILO GONZALEZ' neck before handcuffing Plaintiff MILO GONZALEZ with flex cuffs and arresting him.

81. As a result of these offensive physical contacts, Plaintiff MILO GONZALEZ suffered pain, bruising and abrasions, and continues to experience limited mobility in his left shoulder.

82. Plaintiffs MILO GONZALEZ and KYLE RUCKER were held for a number of hours in a police van outside of One Police Plaza with several other individuals.

83. All of the windows and doors of said police van were closed and locked, causing the police van to be uncomfortably hot.

84. Plaintiff KYLE RUCKER, who had been pepper sprayed by one or more of the individual Defendants, was emanating pepper spray in this hot-box environment, causing pain and discomfort to Plaintiff MILO GONZALEZ and others.

85. Another individual in the police van appeared to be suffering a concussion, and Plaintiff MILO GONZALEZ attempted multiple times to get the attention of various Defendant POLICE OFFICERS, but the Defendant POLICE OFFICERS merely laughed at Plaintiff MILO GONZALEZ' entreaties.

86. Plaintiff MILO GONZALEZ experienced pain, discomfort, humiliation and fear as a result of the conduct of these Defendant POLICE OFFICERS.

DEFENDANTS' PRE-PLANNED "TRAP-AND ARREST" TACTICS

91. At or around this time, following their arrival at Union Square and at the conclusion of the O.W.S. march, some of the Plaintiffs and mass arrestees proceeded south on University Place.

92. Plaintiff ROSITA ADAMS was strolling on University Place enjoying a pleasant afternoon and taking photographs of downtown Manhattan street life for pleasure.

93. As Plaintiffs and mass arrestees, walking South along University Place, approached East 12th Street, the Defendant POLICE OFFICERS put up mesh barricades that blocked Plaintiffs' and mass arrestees' access to University Place south of East 12th Street.

94. At no point before or after the Defendant POLICE OFFICERS placed meshed barricades at the intersection of University Place and East 12th Street, did the Defendant POLICE OFFICERS warn Plaintiffs and mass arrestees that their conduct would lead to their arrest.

95. The Defendant POLICE OFFICERS' mesh barricades that blocked Plaintiffs' and mass arrestees' access to University Place South of East 12th Street, in effect, forced Plaintiffs and mass arrestees to walk west along East 12th Street.

96. Upon information and belief, the Defendant POLICE OFFICERS did not put up the aforementioned mesh barricades in order to prevent the northbound University Place vehicular traffic from crossing East 12th Street.

97. Upon information and belief, at this time the Defendant POLICE OFFICERS had no cognizable lawful reason for placing mesh barricades at the intersection of East 12th Street and University Place.

98. Upon information and belief, the Defendant POLICE OFFICERS' act of placing mesh barricades at the intersection of East 12th Street and University Place and thus forcing Plaintiffs and mass arrestees to walk west along 12th Street, was the direct result of policies and practices — approved, condoned, and ratified by Defendant (FORMER) MAYOR MICHAEL R. BLOOMBERG as well as supported and carried out by Defendant (FORMER) NEW YORK CITY POLICE COMMISSIONER RAYMOND W. KELLY and DEFENDANT NEW YORK CITY POLICE CHIEF JOSEPH ESPOSITO (RETIRED) — designed to effectively chill and suppress Plaintiffs', mass arrestees, and generally all individuals' exercise of their First Amendment protected rights to free speech and association.

99. Upon information and belief, the Defendant POLICE OFFICERS' act of placing mesh barricades at the intersection of East 12th Street and University Place and thus forcing Plaintiffs and mass arrestees to walk west along 12th Street, was an indirect result of policies and practices — approved, condoned, and ratified by Defendant (FORMER) MAYOR MICHAEL R. BLOOMBERG as well as supported and carried out by Defendant (FORMER) NEW YORK CITY POLICE COMMISSIONER RAYMOND W. KELLY and DEFENDANT NEW YORK CITY POLICE CHIEF JOSEPH ESPOSITO (RETIRED) — designed to effectively chill and suppress Plaintiffs', mass arrestees, and generally all individuals' exercise of their First Amendment protected rights to free speech and association.

100. At or around this time, as a result of the Defendant "John Doe" POLICE OFFICERS' East 12th Street and University Place mesh barricades, Plaintiffs and mass arrestees were forced to walk west along East 12th Street toward 5th Avenue.

101. On information and belief, Defendant NEW YORK CITY POLICE CHIEF JOSEPH ESPOSITO (RETIRED) was present at or around East 12th Street and University Place at this time.

102. Process issued to one non-party arrestee arrested near this location at or around 2:45pm on September 24, 2011, indicates that the individual in question was arrested by Defendant NEW YORK CITY POLICE CHIEF JOSEPH ESPOSITO (RETIRED).

103. On information and belief, NEW YORK CITY POLICE CHIEF JOSEPH ESPOSITO (RETIRED) authorized or participated in substantially all of the conduct alleged herein following the conclusion of the OWS march to Union Square.

THE REMAINING PLAINTIFFS ARE ARRESTED EN MASSE

104. At or around this time, a number of Plaintiffs and mass arrestees began walking west on East 12th Street.

105. Plaintiffs ELIZABETH DIERKEN, JOSEPH DIAMOND and VICTORIA SOBEL were standing on the sidewalk in front of the “Cinema Village” movie theater, changing the camera batteries on a camera being used for live-stream reporting.

106. Defendant (FORMER) NEW YORK CITY POLICE COMMISSIONER RAYMOND W. KELLY, in describing the events complained of herein to Vanity Fair Magazine, stated, “...on Saturday [September 24, 2011] in Union Square Park, they [OWS march participants] decided to violate the tacit understanding that they would stay on the sidewalk. It was at University Place where they ran down the street and started blocking traffic. I happened to be in the area that day and I actually saw people doing this. That’s where the first large number of arrests took place.”<sup>2</sup>

107. Despite Defendant (FORMER) NEW YORK CITY POLICE COMMISSIONER RAYMOND W. KELLY’S assertion that a “tacit understanding” existed between the Defendants and the OWS march participants, Defendants engaged in no communications with OWS participants, Plaintiffs, or mass arrestees to establish said “tacit understanding.”

108. Plaintiffs are aware of no persons among OWS participants, Plaintiffs, or mass arrestees who were present on September 24, 2011 with whom Defendant (FORMER) NEW YORK CITY POLICE COMMISSIONER RAYMOND W. KELLY or his agents communicated with in any way to establish any form of “tacit understanding.”

109. Plaintiffs and mass arrestees, in actuality, despite being in close proximity to police officers and Defendant POLICE OFFICERS for several hours, received no warnings or instructions from said police officers relating to staying on the sidewalk.

110. In fact, in response to the Defendant POLICE OFFICERS' observations of a number of Plaintiffs and mass arrestees walking on the roadway of East 12th Street, the Defendant POLICE OFFICERS only ordered such Plaintiffs and mass arrestees to continue walking west along East 12th Street, without specifying whether Plaintiffs and mass arrestees should walk along the roadway or the sidewalks of the same.

111. Plaintiffs and mass arrestees, relying upon the Defendant POLICE OFFICERS' stated instructions and guidance, walked west along East 12th Street.

112. At no point throughout the afternoon of September 24th, 2011 did the Defendant POLICE OFFICERS provide Plaintiffs with any form of specific fair warning that their non-violent and non-disruptive conduct was illegal and would lead to their arrests.

113. At no point throughout the afternoon of September 24th, 2011 did the Defendant POLICE OFFICERS provide Plaintiffs and mass arrestees with a reasonable opportunity to refrain from engaging in conduct that would lead to their arrests.

114. Given that Plaintiffs' and mass arrestees' non-violent and non-disruptive conduct throughout the afternoon of September 24th, 2011, at all times, presented no threat of imminent harm, the Defendant POLICE OFFICERS were without a pressing law enforcement need to effect mass arrests.

115. Shortly after Plaintiffs and mass arrestees began walking west along East 12th Street, Plaintiffs and mass arrestees approached the intersection of East 12th Street and 5th Avenue.

116. As Plaintiffs and mass arrestees approached the intersection of East 12th Street and 5th Avenue, the Defendant POLICE OFFICERS put up mesh barricades that prevented Plaintiffs and mass arrestees from proceeding onto 5th Avenue.

117. At or around this time, the Defendant POLICE OFFICERS who had put up the mesh barricade along University Place south of East 12th Street moved said mesh barrier to prevent Plaintiffs and mass arrestees from exiting East 12th Street back onto University Place.

118. Plaintiffs and mass arrestees were trapped by Defendant POLICE OFFICERS on East 12th Street between University Place and 5th Avenue.

119. At no point before the Defendant POLICE OFFICERS trapped Plaintiffs and mass arrestees on East 12th Street between University Place and 5th Avenue did the Defendant POLICE OFFICERS order Plaintiffs or mass arrestees to disperse.

120. At no point before the Defendant POLICE OFFICERS trapped Plaintiffs and mass arrestees on East 12th Street between University Place and 5th Avenue did the Defendant POLICE OFFICERS warn Plaintiffs and mass arrestees that their conduct would lead to their arrest.

121. At no point before or after the Defendant POLICE OFFICERS trapped Plaintiffs and mass arrestees on East 12th Street between University Place and 5th Avenue did Plaintiffs intentionally cause public inconvenience, annoyance, or alarm by blocking vehicular traffic.

122. At no point before or after the Defendant POLICE OFFICERS trapped Plaintiffs and mass arrestees on East 12th Street between University Place and 5th Avenue did Plaintiffs intentionally cause public inconvenience, annoyance, or alarm by blocking pedestrian traffic.

123. Upon information and belief, any vehicular or pedestrian traffic that was disrupted along East 12th Street on or around University Place and 5th Avenue on the afternoon of September 24, 2011 was disrupted solely due to the mesh barricades put up by the Defendant POLICE OFFICERS.

124. Upon information and belief, any vehicular or pedestrian traffic that was disrupted along East 12th Street on or around University Place and 5th Avenue on the afternoon of September 24, 2011 was disrupted primarily due to the mesh barricades put up by the Defendant POLICE OFFICERS.

125. Some of the Defendant POLICE OFFICERS, mesh barricades in-hand, continued walking west along East 12th Street toward Plaintiffs and mass arrestees.

126. The Defendant POLICE OFFICERS' mesh barricades stretched across the entire width of East 12th Street, including both the north and south sidewalks of the same.

127. Plaintiff BRENNAN CAVANAUGH, a citizen journalist, was photographing this police action from further east on East 12th Street, not within the police cordon being closed on the other remaining Plaintiffs and eventual mass arrestees.

128. As Plaintiff BRENNAN CAVANAUGH was standing on the sidewalk photographing police officers on the other side of the orange mesh barricade in front of Plaintiff BRENNAN CAVANAUGH who were arresting individuals and securing them with flex-cuffs, another mesh barricade was raised behind Plaintiff BRENNAN CAVANAUGH.

129. Plaintiff BRENNAN CAVANAUGH was then arrested and handcuffed by a Defendant POLICE OFFICER in plainclothes, wearing an off-white long-sleeve T-shirt or sweatshirt and blue jeans, who appeared to be a Caucasian male in his forties.

130. The Defendant POLICE OFFICER who arrested Plaintiff BRENNAN CAVANAUGH did not identify himself or show a badge, and handed Plaintiff BRENNAN CAVANAUGH off to a uniformed officer for transport and processing after handcuffing Plaintiff BRENNAN CAVANAUGH.

167. At or around this time, the Defendant POLICE OFFICERS guided the unnecessarily handcuffed and arrested Plaintiffs BRENNAN CAVANAUGH, ELIZABETH DIERKEN, JOSEPH DIAMOND, VICTORIA SOBEL, MIRIAM ROCEK, ARMANDO ESPINOZA, ROSITA ADAMS and mass arrestees to the intersection of West 12th Street and 5th Avenue.

168. At or around this time, the Defendant POLICE OFFICERS ordered the unnecessarily handcuffed and arrested Plaintiffs BRENNAN CAVANAUGH, ELIZABETH DIERKEN, JOSEPH DIAMOND, VICTORIA SOBEL, MIRIAM ROCEK, ARMANDO ESPINOZA, ROSITA ADAMS and mass arrestees to sit on the pavement of the West 12th Street and 5th Avenue intersection.

170. Following the illegally arrested Plaintiffs BRENNAN CAVANAUGH, ELIZABETH DIERKEN, JOSEPH DIAMOND, VICTORIA SOBEL, MIRIAM ROCEK, ARMANDO ESPINOZA and ROSITA ADAMS' approximate twenty minute wait, the Defendant POLICE OFFICERS ordered Plaintiffs to board one of several busses owned by Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK that were located near West 12th Street and 5th Avenue ("Municipal Busses"), or police vans.

171. Upon information and belief, the Municipal Busses were waiting near West 12th Street and 5th Avenue because the Defendants had planned, in advance, to conduct the indiscriminate and illegal “trap-and-arrest” conduct complained of herein.

172. At or around this time, police officers or agents of Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK drove the Municipal Busses and police vans, containing arrested Plaintiffs and mass arrestees, to One Police Plaza.

173. Shortly after the Municipal Busses and police vans arrived at One Police Plaza, the Defendant POLICE OFFICERS forced Plaintiffs BRENNAN CAVANAUGH, ELIZABETH DIERKEN, JOSEPH DIAMOND, VICTORIA SOBEL, MIRIAM ROCEK, ARMANDO ESPINOZA and ROSITA ADAMS to sit on the Municipal Busses for approximately four hours.

174. In that time, Plaintiff BRENNAN CAVANAUGH’s flex cuffs were replaced, following observations from mass arrestees that his initial flex cuffs were applied so tightly that Plaintiff BRENNAN CAVANAUGH’s hands were turning blue.

176. Several plaintiffs observed senior Defendant POLICE OFFICERS instructing junior officers as to assignments of arrests.

177. On information and belief, Plaintiff ARMANDO ESPINOZA’s assigned arresting officer had reported directly to One Police Plaza from his assigned posting in the South Bronx, and had no idea why Plaintiff ARMANDO ESPINOZA was facing arrest.

178. On information and belief, Plaintiff VICTORIA SOBEL was assigned to one putative arresting officer initially, and then was reassigned to another, neither of whom had been present for Plaintiff VICTORIA SOBEL’s arrest.

179. At or around this time, the Defendant POLICE OFFICERS performed frisks and pat downs of Plaintiffs BRENNAN CAVANAUGH, ELIZABETH DIERKEN, JOSEPH DIAMOND, VICTORIA SOBEL, MIRIAM ROCEK, ARMANDO ESPINOZA and ROSITA ADAMS.

180. At or around this time, the Defendant POLICE OFFICERS seized Plaintiffs’ personal belongings.

181. At or around approximately 8:00pm, the Defendant POLICE OFFICERS placed male Plaintiffs BRENNAN CAVANAUGH, JOSEPH DIAMOND, ARMANDO ESPINOZA and male mass arrestees into a single holding cell within One Police Plaza.

182. At or around approximately 8:00pm, the Defendant POLICE OFFICERS placed female Plaintiffs ELIZABETH DIERKEN, VICTORIA SOBEL, MIRIAM ROCEK, ROSITA ADAMS and female mass arrestees in groups of six or more into small holding cells within One Police Plaza.

183. The male and female mass holding cells within One Police Plaza were only equipped with one toilet, one bed, and one sink per cell.

184. Plaintiffs BRENNAN CAVANAUGH, ELIZABETH DIERKEN, JOSEPH DIAMOND, VICTORIA SOBEL, MIRIAM ROCEK, ARMANDO ESPINOZA and ROSITA ADAMS — having already spent four hours, handcuffed, sitting, and waiting on the Municipal Bus — were uncomfortable in the holding cells within One Police Plaza.

185. Plaintiffs BRENNAN CAVANAUGH, ELIZABETH DIERKEN, JOSEPH DIAMOND, VICTORIA SOBEL, MIRIAM ROCEK, ARMANDO ESPINOZA and ROSITA ADAMS — having already spent four hours, handcuffed, sitting, and waiting on the Municipal Bus — were frightened and humiliated by having to still wait further in the single holding cell within One Police Plaza.

187. Between approximately 11:00pm and approximately 4:00am on September 25th, 2011, the Defendant POLICE OFFICERS released Plaintiffs BRENNAN CAVANAUGH, ELIZABETH DIERKEN, JOSEPH DIAMOND, VICTORIA SOBEL, MIRIAM ROCEK, ARMANDO ESPINOZA and ROSITA ADAMS from the holding cells.

194. New York City Police Officers have discretion to issue summonses for Disorderly Conduct, without arresting persons accused of the violation.

195. On information and belief, Plaintiffs and mass arrestees were arrested to chill and deter them from engaging in further First Amendment protected expression within the jurisdiction of Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK.

196. On information and belief, Plaintiffs and mass arrestees were arrested to prevent them from engaging in further First Amendment protected expression on September 24, 2011.

197. Following these events, Plaintiff ELIZABETH DIERKEN appeared before the court on four (4) occasions.

198. Plaintiff ELIZABETH DIERKEN incurred significant expenses flying from San Francisco to New York City to defend herself against these charges.

199. Following these events, at the time of Plaintiff ELIZABETH DIERKEN'S final and most recent appearance before the court, Plaintiff ELIZABETH DIERKEN received an Adjournment in Contemplation of Dismissal of all violations interposed against her, and her case has now been dismissed and sealed.

200. Plaintiff ELIZABETH DIERKEN accepted an Adjournment in Contemplation of Dismissal rather than proving her innocence at trial in large part because of the expense involved in flying back and forth across the country for court appearances.

201. Following these events, Plaintiff JOSEPH DIAMOND appeared before the court on two (2) occasions.

202. Following these events, the charges of violating P.L. §§240.20(5)(6) which had been filed against Plaintiff JOSEPH DIAMOND were dismissed by the New York County District Attorney, whose agent represented in open court that they could not prove beyond a reasonable doubt that Plaintiff JOSEPH DIAMOND had violated P.L. §§240.20(5)(6).

203. Following these events, Plaintiff BRENNAN CAVANAUGH appeared before the court on two (2) occasions.

213. Upon information and belief, Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK, Defendant (FORMER) MAYOR MICHAEL R. BLOOMBERG, Defendant (FORMER) NEW YORK CITY POLICE COMMISSIONER RAYMOND W. KELLY and Defendant NEW YORK CITY POLICE CHIEF JOSEPH ESPOSITO (RETIRED) have adopted arbitrary and non-content neutral practices and customs with respect to the regulation of parades and other like mass assemblies.

214. Upon information and belief, the policies and practices of Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK, as effected and/or condoned Defendant (FORMER) MAYOR MICHAEL R. BLOOMBERG, Defendant (FORMER) NEW YORK CITY POLICE COMMISSIONER RAYMOND W. KELLY and Defendant NEW YORK CITY POLICE CHIEF JOSEPH ESPOSITO (RETIRED) and their agents with respect to mass assemblies have created and continue to foster a sense of confusion for individuals seeking to peaceably assemble in New York City, because it is unclear what forms of public assembly are proscribed and what forms of public assembly are allowed to proceed without police intervention.

215. Upon information and belief, instead of creating and subsequently enforcing content neutral policies and practices that delineate the circumstances under which persons can peaceably assemble without threat of arrest by officers and agents of Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK, Defendants have relied upon vague and inconsistently applied customs and practices for policing group assemblies.

216. These customs and practices embrace and enable mass arrest tactics such as deployed by Defendants against Plaintiffs and mass arrestees on the afternoon of September 24th, 2011.

217. Upon information and belief, Defendants have relied upon indiscriminate and illegal “Trap-and-Arrest” mass arrest tactics such as deployed on the afternoon of September 24th, 2011 because such tactics are more useful for effectively chilling individuals’ First Amendment protected rights to free speech and association than the Constitutionally-required tactic of developing individualized probable cause to effect specific arrests of individuals.

218. Upon information and belief, the Defendants’ probable-cause-less arrest and overnight detainment of Plaintiffs was a direct result of pre-planned and calculated decisions by Defendant (FORMER) MAYOR MICHAEL R. BLOOMBERG and Defendant (FORMER) NEW YORK CITY POLICE COMMISSIONER RAYMOND W. KELLY and DEFENDANT NEW YORK CITY POLICE CHIEF JOSEPH ESPOSITO (RETIRED) intended to chill Plaintiffs’ First Amendment protected rights to free speech and association.

219. Upon information and belief, the Defendants’ probable-cause-less arrest and overnight detainment of Plaintiffs was an indirect result of policies and practices both approved and ratified by Defendant (FORMER) MAYOR MICHAEL R. BLOOMBERG as well as supported and carried out by Defendant (FORMER) NEW YORK CITY POLICE COMMISSIONER RAYMOND W. KELLY and DEFENDANT NEW YORK CITY POLICE CHIEF JOSEPH ESPOSITO (RETIRED) to effectively chill and suppress Plaintiffs’, mass arrestees, and generally all individuals’ exercise of their First Amendment protected rights to free speech and association.

220. Upon information and belief, Plaintiffs were illegally arrested and detained as a result of the Defendant POLICE OFFICERS’ attempt to meet the New York Police Department’s quantitative enforcement productivity goals, i.e., arrest quotas.

221. At the time of the September 24th, 2011 incident and arrest of Plaintiffs, not one of the Plaintiffs had a warrant out for his or her arrest.

223. At the time of the September 24th, 2011 incident and arrest of Plaintiffs, not one of the Plaintiffs was in possession of a controlled substance of any sort.

224. At the time of the September 24th, 2011 incident and arrest of Plaintiffs, not one of the Plaintiffs was engaged in any illegal activity of any kind, but instead Plaintiffs were lawfully exercising their First Amendment Protected rights to free speech and association.

225. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiffs ELIZABETH DIERKEN, JOSEPH DIAMOND, VICTORIA SOBEL, BRENNAN CAVANAUGH, MIRIAM ROCEK, ARMANDO ESPINOZA, ROSITA ADAMS, MILO GONZALEZ, LOUIS JARGOW and KYLE RUCKER sustained, inter alia, mental injuries, emotional distress, embarrassment, temporary deprivation of property, humiliation, and deprivation of their constitutional rights.

300. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate, and re-allege each and every allegation contained in the above paragraphs with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.

301. Plaintiffs also incorporate herein by reference the contents of the appendix attached to the initial complaint herein, "ADDITIONAL FACT PLEADINGS IN SUPPORT OF MONELL CLAIMS."

302. Defendants arrested and incarcerated Plaintiffs in the absence of any evidence of criminal wrongdoing, notwithstanding their knowledge that said arrests and incarcerations would jeopardize the Plaintiffs' liberty, wellbeing, safety, and constitutional rights.

303. The acts complained of were carried out by the aforementioned individual Defendants in their capacities as police officers and officials, with all the actual and/or apparent authority attendant thereto.

304. The acts complained of were carried out by the aforementioned individual defendants in their capacities as police officers and officials pursuant to the customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures, and rules of the CITY OF NEW YORK and the New York City Police Department, all under the supervision of ranking officers of said department.

305. The aforementioned customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of the CITY OF NEW YORK and the New York City Police Department include, but are not limited to, the following unconstitutional practices:

- a) wrongfully arresting individuals engaged in first amendment protected expression without probable cause due to perceived lack of respect for the police officer (i.e., "contempt of cop" arrests of persons engaged in first amendment protected expression);
- b) wrongfully arresting individuals engaged in first amendment protected expression without probable cause in attempts to justify excessive uses of force against same (i.e. "contempt of cop" "cover charge" arrests; condoning brutality);
- c) wrongfully arresting innocent persons engaged in first amendment protected expression in order to meet quantitative "productivity goals" (i.e., arrest quotas).
- d) wrongfully arresting persons without probable cause due to perceived lack of respect for the police officer; in order to teach a lesson in respect while also satisfying quantitative "productivity goals" (i.e., "contempt of cop" arrests used to satisfy arrest quotas).

e) the pervasive failure to supervise, train, instruct and discipline police officers with respect to the constitutional rights of citizens, and encouraging the ensuing misconduct through condoning officers' widespread custom or practice known as the "Blue Wall of Silence," wherein officers deliberately frustrate official and departmental oversight by discouraging officers from reporting corrupt or unlawful acts of other police officers, and by retaliating against officers who report police misconduct (condoning pervasive constitutional violations and concomitant "Blue Wall of Silence" coverups of same)

f) wrongfully arresting persons observing, documenting, or commenting upon police actions in violation of the consent decree in Black et al. v. Codd et al., United States District Court, Southern District of New York, 73 Civ. 5283 ("Consent Decree").

306. The Consent Decree states at 2 that: "[n]one of the following constitutes probable cause for the arrest or detention of an onlooker [to a police action] unless the safety of officers or other persons is directly endangered or the officer reasonably believes they are endangered or the law is otherwise violated: (a) Speech alone, even though crude and vulgar; (b) Requesting and making notes of shield numbers and names of officers; (c) Taking photographs; (d) Remaining in the vicinity of the stop or arrest."

307. This understanding memorialized in the Consent Decree is codified in the NYPD Patrol Guide at PG §208-03, subsection "Observers At The Scene of Police Incidents."

308. Despite due and repeated notice of the First Amendment rights of citizens in the vicinity of police actions, those same rights have been disregarded flagrantly and repeatedly throughout the course of Occupy Wall Street by members and ranking officers of the NYPD alike.

309. Officers of the NYPD took adverse action against the aforesaid Plaintiffs and other persons similarly situated in deliberate efforts to chill the First Amendment protected expression of persons observing, recording, and/or commenting upon police actions undertaken in the course of Occupy Wall Street.

310. The existence of the aforesaid unconstitutional customs and practices, specifically with regard to the failure to screen, supervise, train, instruct and discipline Defendant NEW YORK CITY POLICE DEPUTY INSPECTOR ANTHONY BOLOGNA and encouraging his misconduct, are further evidenced, inter alia, by the following civil rights actions in which he is a named defendant:

- e. Kalra v. City of New York, 05-CV-01563 (RJS) (S.D.N.Y.) (same);
- f. Hershey-Wilson v. City of New York, 05-CV-07026 (RJS) (S.D.N.Y.) (Inspector Bologna alleged to have ordered unlawful arrest of persons engaged in protected First Amendment activity);

- h. Burley v. City of New York, 03-CV-00735 (WHP) (S.D.N.Y.) (Inspector Bologna alleged to have ordered and participated in unlawful arrest of class of persons engaged in protected First Amendment activity).

311. The existence of the above-described unlawful de facto policies and/or well-settled and widespread customs and practices is known to, encouraged and/or condoned by supervisory and policy-making officer and officials of the NYPD and Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK, including, without limitation, Defendant (FORMER) NEW YORK CITY POLICE COMMISSIONER RAYMOND W. KELLY and Defendant NEW YORK CITY POLICE CHIEF JOSEPH ESPOSITO (RETIRED).

312. The actions of the individual police defendants resulted from and were taken pursuant to the above-mentioned de facto policies and/or well-settled and widespread customs and practices of Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK, which are implemented by members of the NYPD, of engaging in systematic and ubiquitous perjury, both oral and written, to cover-up federal law violations committed against civilians by either themselves or their fellow officers, supervisors and/or subordinates. They do so with the knowledge and approval of their supervisors, commanders and Defendant (FORMER) NEW YORK CITY POLICE COMMISSIONER RAYMOND W. KELLY who all: (i) tacitly accept and encourage a code of silence wherein police officers refuse to report other officers' misconduct or tell false and/or incomplete stories, inter alia, in sworn testimony, official reports, in statements to the CCRB and IAB, and in public statements designed to cover for and/or falsely exonerate accused police officers; and (ii) encourage and, in the absence of video evidence blatantly exposing the officers' perjury, fail to discipline officers for "testilying" and/or fabricating false evidence to initiate and continue the malicious prosecution of civilians in order to cover-up civil rights violations perpetrated by themselves or fellow officers, supervisors and/or subordinates against those civilians.

313. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of the Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK and the individual defendants, Plaintiffs' constitutional rights were violated.

314. As a result of the above constitutionally impermissible conduct, Plaintiffs were caused to suffer personal injuries, violation of their civil rights, emotional distress, anguish, anxiety, fear, humiliation, loss of freedom, loss of wages and damage to their reputations and standings within their communities.

315. As a result of Defendants' impermissible conduct, Plaintiffs demand judgment against Defendants in a sum of money to be determined at trial.

317. Plaintiffs also incorporate herein by reference the contents of the appendix attached to the initial complaint in this action, "ADDITIONAL FACT PLEADINGS IN SUPPORT OF MONELL CLAIMS."

318. Upon information and belief, the arrests of Plaintiffs were motivated in part by the Defendant POLICE OFFICERS' need to meet quantitative enforcement "productivity goals" promulgated by Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK.

319. Upon information and belief, the unlawful arrests of Plaintiffs were undertaken by the Defendant POLICE OFFICERS due to said officers' need to meet quantitative enforcement "productivity goals" promulgated by policymakers and/or supervisory staff of Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK's police department, including but not limited to Defendant NEW YORK CITY POLICE CHIEF JOSEPH ESPOSITO (RETIRED) and Defendant (FORMER) NEW YORK CITY POLICE COMMISSIONER RAYMOND W. KELLY.

320. The particular arrests of Plaintiffs are believed to have been motivated in whole or in part by the aforesaid unconstitutional arrest quota custom and/or policy because they were undertaken in the absence of probable cause to arrest.

321. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of the Defendants, Plaintiffs' constitutional rights were violated.

322. As a result of the above constitutionally impermissible conduct, Plaintiffs were caused to suffer personal injuries, violation of their civil rights, emotional distress, anguish, anxiety, fear, humiliation, loss of freedom, loss of wages, and damage to their reputations and standings within their communities.
